AUSTRIAN CITY THREATENED BY ITALIANS

The advancing Italian army is only a few miles from the great Austrian naval base at Trieste. The photograph shows a panorama of Trieste and was taken from Miramar, the home of the Archduke Maximilian, afterward emperor of Mexico. In the foreground running along the shore is the important railroad connecting Trieste with Venice, the Isonzo and Vienna. At the foot of the hill is one of the fortifications. In the middle distance is shown the breakwater harbor and main part of the city. In the background, fronting the bay, is Servola, the site of Austria's great naval ship-building yard.

MISS RANKIN PLANTS TWO TREES

Miss Jeanette Rankin of Montana, our only congresswoman, has added arboriculture to her list of accomplishments. With the aid of three movie photographers, a few congressmen, a handful of spectators and a pair of diminutive trees, Miss Rankin added to the landscape on the capitol grounds. She planted a fir tree and a California Redwood.

BATTLESHIP PENNSYLVANIA IN ACTION

NOT LOST IN THE ARCTIC

Donald B. McMillan who, it is reported, has been picked up after four years in the Arctic searching for Crocker land which Rear Admiral Peary thought he had discovered several years ago. McMillan and his party were sent into the North in 1913 by the American Museum of Natural History, equipped for a four years' stay. In 1915 the George B. Cluett was sent up as a relief ship, but returned after an unsuccessful search for the party. Last year the Denmark was sent up from Greenland, and after wintering in North Star bay found Doctor McMillan and his party.
